MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

Fullam, Sr. J.

April 26, 2007

On April 23, 2007, the pro se plaintiff filed a motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis. Accompanying the motion is a single page document entitled "Complaint" which seems to suggest that plaintiff believes his various constitutional rights have been violated and that he has a "smart money claim" for $100 million. Accompanying this document is a stack of papers pertaining to litigation which plaintiff has apparently pursued in various courts, over a period from 1989 to 2006. Most of these lawsuits were filed in the District of Columbia Circuit or in California, or in various state courts. All of them were summarily dismissed for lack of merit. Nothing in the papers submitted by plaintiff can possibly be viewed as stating any valid claims against anyone. The motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis will therefore be denied, and this action will be dismissed as frivolous, 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B).

An Order follows.
